

PARIS

HOME

for the HOLIDAYS

Welcome...

This holiday season we travel to one of the world's most beautiful cities in the world— PARIS. A city alive with style, elegance, energy and purpose... to live FREE in a society that embraces and celebrates the art of life. This intoxicating celebration is never so prevalent as when traveling to the Arc de Triomphe during the Christmas holiday season.

Here, as evening sets upon the city of Paris, you experience a visual masterpiece brimming with a row of glittering lights leading to the Arc de Triomphe. The "triumphal arc" was originally commissioned by Emperor Napoleon I in 1806 as tribute to the Grande Armée (French Army) after Napoleon's victory of the Austrian Empire in Austerlitz in 1805. However, its final completion was delayed until 1836 due to various extenuating and historical circumstances.

The Arc de Triomphe rises in the center of the Place de l'Étoile — Place Charles de Gaulle, and extends a circular access street to twelve of Paris's prominent avenues including the Champs-Élysées.

An emblem of French patriotism, the Arc de Triomphe is engraved with the names of war victories and 558 generals. An Unknown Soldier is buried under the arch, and an eternal flame of remembrance lit since 1920 commemorate victims of the world wars. Each of the Arc's pillars is adorned with one of four large sculptural reliefs: The Departure of the Volunteers in 1792 (aka La Marseillaise) by François Rude; Napoleon's Triumph of 1810 by Cortot; and Resistance of 1814 and Peace of 1815, both by Etex.

Table X (www.TableX.TV) celebrates the people of Paris this holiday season for their continued strength, perseverance, patriotism and a life replete with style, culture and refined world-class gastronomy.
